

Supported by ESSE SHEENE MILL
retail + therapy
www.esse.uk.com

8 Chervil Way
Great Cambourne
Cambs
CB3 6BA

12 November 2009

Mr Jason Binks
Store Manager
Tesco
Abbots Ripton Road
Sapley
Cambridge.
PE28 2LA

Dear Jason

A HUGE SUCCESSFUL FUNDRAISING FASHION PARTY IN SUPPORT OF
'CARING MATTERS NOW'

Well what a night! The Ladies Night Fashion Party, held at Esse Retail and Therapy in Melbourn to raise money for the charity 'Caring Matters Now', was a fantastic night and proved to be a great success. More than 80 ladies, who helped raise a staggering £1,300 on the night, attended the evening on Friday 5th May.

The charity provides much needed support for sufferers of Congenital Melanocytic Naevi (CMN), a large disfiguring birthmark regarded as a benign tumour, and is trying to raise the funds needed to carry out vital research into the condition.

The money raised on the night will go a long way to helping our charity's annual total of £30,000, required to fund the research at Great Ormond Street Hospital. This in turn will help our daughter Fay, Granddaughter to Jackie Douglas a member of your staff and other sufferers of CMN.

We would like to say a huge thank you for your very kind contribution. The amazing raffle prizes available on the night helped raise £500 alone, in raffle ticket sales.

Thank you,

Kind regards

Lucy Hardwidge (Fay's mum)
Tel: 01954 715561 Email: lucy.hardwidge@ntlworld.com