

Caring Matters Now is the only UK charity supporting those affected by Congenital Melanocytic Naevi

The 3 main aims of the charity are:

- To support those affected by CMN
- To raise awareness about CMN
- To raise funds for the CMN research

What is Congenital Melanocytic Naevi (CMN)?

CMN is a brown or black mole present at birth

CMN can be very numerous and appear on any part of the body

Large or multiple CMN are untreatable

Those with CMN have to deal with constant questions about why they look different

CMN covers up to 80% of the body

1 in 10 of high-risk patients develop melanoma

2 in 10 have neurological complications

100% of melanoma cases have been fatal
